

NOMINATE

CAYMAN'S YOUTH

Reaching Higher

Recognising the positive achievements of Cayman's youth

The National Youth Commission in partnership with the Cayman Islands Government is seeking to publicly recognise the positive achievements of young people of the Cayman Islands in various areas. Each individual selected will be featured for six months at a time on billboards established across the Cayman Islands.

Nominations are being sought for suitable young people between the ages of 10 and 25 years in the categories of Academics, Careers, Business, Sports, Culture or Community Service. Nominations are encouraged from every district, so that persons who are selected will have a direct, real, and relevant connection to young people from that particular district.

Let's celebrate the success of our young ambassadors and let them be an inspiration to others!

CATEGORIES

Nominations are now open for the Proud of Them initiative for the following categories:

Academics

A young person who has excelled or achieved exceptional attainment in an institution of learning.

Career

A young person who has excelled or achieved exceptional attainment in a chosen career.

Business

A young person who has demonstrated entrepreneurship in creating and developing a successful business.

Sports

A young person who has excelled or achieved exceptional attainment in the area of sports.

Culture

A young person who has achieved exceptional attainment in the area of cultural practice including the visual, performing, or traditional arts.

Community Service

A young person who has demonstrated through the spirit of voluntarism and selflessness, a passion for the betterment of his or her community and improving the standing of his fellow humanity.

To nominate an individual for one of the categories, complete this form and supply two references along with any evidence that supports your nomination.

In making its selection the committee will look for evidence in the nominator documents which demonstrate that the youth has the following characteristics:

- The youth has made a significant achievement in one of the areas of; academics, career, business, sports, arts, culture or community service.
- The youth is responsible and hard working.
